

NEWS INFORMATION

RELEASE DATE: Dec. 7, 2001

CONTACT: Jeanette Lute, 741-6000, ext. 123

ATTENTION PUBLIC SERVICE EDITOR

Success By 6, a United Way initiative, is seeking volunteers interested in teaching parenting education classes. You can make a difference!

Developed in collaboration with Birth To Three, the University of Oregon, and Success By 6, the Parenting Now! curriculum is designed for parents with children ages zero to six, and is intended for use in parenting groups led by trained volunteers. The classes are offered through local community organizations, such as service clubs, family resource centers, churches, and schools.

The next FREE leader training session (two, eight-hour days) is scheduled for consecutive Fridays, January 4th and 11th, 2002. Call Jeannette Lute at United Way for more details and how to apply, or if you are affiliated with a service organization and wish to host a session.

Lute can be reached at 741-6000, ext. 123, or via e-mail at jlute@unitedwaylane.org. For more information about Success by 6 and Parenting Now!, visit www.cherisheverychild.org.

#

START: IMMEDIATELY
END: JAN. 3, 2002